Sorry. I must excuse me beeing so ignorant. In truth the word Jewish & arabs. They dont mean nothing to me. I was talking about war, out of my ass. To me jewish or not, means in reality nothing. Arab or not, means nothing. Only indivisuals mean something. Only experience means anything. I am sorry that some keywords ticked of some old box thinking and let me say things, I can not sustain. I know absoulutely not why you used those words, and what they mean except for the stated fact, and me talking about some war or something, that I in reality know nothing about was really not me talking at all.
