I started writing a program

I've done that!

but I expected one or two of the quick thinkers on the list to (a.) correct the errors in my first program
(b.) post some solution

And where did you send the money? I'm not the quickest of "the thinkers on list" but I waited by the mailbox and my box of money never came.

You may not have noticed, but jmcgill wasn't actually the OP requesting help with a homework problem, and I'm thinking the expectation was a little jovial.

I did not bother to notice that but I did notice KISS MY FUCKING ASS!!!

HTH,
