You can refer to the same one. I sure don't 'own' it.
It was formulated long before I ever posted to the usenet news groups.

Who's. Yours?

The prevailing opinion (by many contributors to the groups) is that multi-posting is counter productive.

..I do not feel you owe me (or anyone) an apology.

I would like to hear though, that you intend not to multi-post in future.
